5. Laces to be tied on the top of trainers

Event Format

Historically this festival has been designed to celebrate the hard work and effort of the wider netball community. It provides an opportunity for schools to have their B and C teams to participate. Although there will be a competitive element, the focus will fall upon the school games values and creating a positive atmosphere for children to demonstrate the skills that they have learnt, feel the sense of belonging to their team and thrive in a sporting environment.

As it is a festival, there will not be any scores recorded on the day.

Schools will be grouped and be given the opportunity to play 5 games (dependent on whether all 12 places are filled).

Please be prepared to umpire alongside a student leader from Dane Court.
