This brand new course is based on innovative content, which has been developed by teachers for teachers, to help you deliver outstanding PE lessons with confidence.

As well as teaching fundamental movement skills and physical literacy, tennis is a great way of developing personal and character skills. The course demonstrates how tennis can be delivered to a whole class of children in a small space and how it can be adapted and differentiated for all learners. Activities focus on both improving pupils' physical and character skills.

Every teacher attending the course receives a free pack of resources including: an activity flipbook, pupil achievement certificates and stickers.

Finally, teachers attending the course (limited to one per school) will receive a £250 voucher to spend on 10 hours free coaching with a local LTA Accredited Coach!

The course is aimed at both qualified and trainee primary school teachers, as well as teaching assistants who are involved in delivering or supporting physical education in a primary school environment.
